The body was recovered based on information provided by accused Balraj Gill (28), who along with another person had disposed of the body. He was arrested from an airport in Kolkata on Thursday, police officials said, adding the body was identified through a tattoo on Divya's back.

On January 2, Pahuja was taken to Hotel City Point by five people and shot in the head inside room number 111 because she had allegedly been extorting money from the hotel owner, Abhijeet Singh (56), by blackmailing him with his "obscene pictures", the police said.

Gurugram Assistant Commissioner of Police (Crime) Varun Kumar Dahiya said Pahuja's body was recovered from the subsidiary canal of the Bhakra canal in CCTV footage from Hotel City Point showed the accused, including Singh, purportedly dragging Pahuja's body wrapped in a white sheet through the lobby. They later fled the hotel in a car with the body in the boot.

As per the police, Singh handed over the car with the body to Gill around a kilometre from the hotel. The car was later found abandoned at a bus stand in Punjab's Patiala. Police launched an extensive operation to find Pahuja's body after disclosures made by Gill following his arrest, they said.

He disposed of the body with another accused, Ravi Banga at the behest of Abhijeet, they said. Police had earlier arrested four people - Abhijeet, Hemraj, Omprakash and Megha - in connection with the case.
