OFFICE ORDER

Consequent upon the approval of the competent authority, all MBBS students of different batches are hereby instructed to follow the dress code rules and regulations of IGIMS, Patna inside the college campus during college/ duty hours as under:-

1. Half or full sleeved White Coat (with IGIMS Logo embossed on left upper pocket) should be worn inside the college campus by all batches of students/ interns during practical/ clinical classes.
2. Identity Card should be displayed over the white coat during class/ duty hours.
3. Hair must be groomed well for boys.
4. Hair should not be left loose but should be well groomed for girls. (Hair in dissection hall/ lab/ and on patients in wards/ OT table is a disaster).
5. Face must be neatly shaven for boys.
6. No slippers should be worn. Only formal shoes are allowed during college/ duty hours.
7. IGIMS authority doesn't impose any specific uniform for MBBS students of any batch and Interns. However, wearing of only formal dress is allowed inside institute premises during college/ duty hours with identity card. White coats need to be worn during practical/ clinical classes.
8. No need to wear white coat during theory classes.
9. The first year MBBS students must take into cognizance that no special uniform to be worn by them. Formal dress will be different for different students.

All MBBS students are instructed to follow the above rules strictly failing which legitimate disciplinary measures will be taken against them.

All faculty are requested to expel the first year MBBS students wearing special uniform during theory/practical/ clinical classes and to ensure that they wear formal dress which will obviously be different for different students.

The matter may be treated as most urgent.
